

Terry Butler, CSP
Director
Benefits, Environmental Health & Safety
Vermeer Corporation

Born in Berwin Illinois and raised in Glen Ellyn Illinois. Reside in Pella, Iowa, married for 32 years with one son.

Hold two BS degrees from Illinois State University in Normal, Illinois (BS in Safety Engineering and BS in Industrial Technology). Received an Associate Arts degree in Business and Industrial Psychology from College of Du Page in Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

Joined Vermeer Corporation, Pella, Iowa in 1997:

- Initial position – Manager EH&S
- Vice President Facilities and EH&S 1999 to 2004
- Technical Advisor to Vermeer Charitable Foundation 2002 to present
- Director of EH&S and Mission Support 2004 to 2009
- Director of Operations 2009 to 2012
- Director Benefits and EH&S 2012 to present

Prior Companies and positions:

- Sheaffer Pen Co – Sr. Manufacturing Engineering Manager 1993 to 1997
- Sheaffer Pen Co – Sr. Manager EH&S, Facilities, Tooling, and Chemical Engineering 1989-1993
- Sheaffer Pen Co. – Sr. Manager EH&S 1986 – 1989
- Sheaffer Pen Co – Manager of Safety and Security 1984-1986
- Archer Daniels Midland (ADM) – Process Engineer 1981 -1984

Community /Professional Involvement:

- Church Leadership and Deaconate member
- Emergency Response Commission
- Mentoring and Coaching
- American Society of Safety Engineers Professional Member

Board Membership:

- Iowa Occupational Safety & Health Advisory Council Board member
- Safe Water International Ministries - Present
- Serve Our Youth (SOY) 2000-2004

Interests:

- Enjoy racket ball, golf, fishing, and downhill skiing
- Mentoring and being mentored